ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Dhurwarao Madiya Government College is a key institution of higher education in the Bastar region. Predominantly serving tribal communities, the college is dedicated to undergraduate studies and strives to provide quality education in a supportive environment. It plays a vital role in fostering academic growth and community development in one of Chhattisgarh's most underserved areas.

ABOUT THE DISTRICT

Bijapur, located in the southern part of Chhattisgarh, is a district known for its rich tribal heritage and dense forests. Part of the Bastar division, it is home to a predominantly tribal population and is characterized by its unique cultural traditions and natural beauty. Despite its remote location, Bijapur is making strides in education and development, with institutions like Dhurwarao Madiya Government College contributing to the region's progress.
